

Alas! Alack! And Woe is Me!

A mournful and lamentable new part-song,
composed on the scandalous absence of Don William de Cameron,
who notoriously failed to find an extra day in his week,
and claimed overwork as an excuse against Musick.

S A
T

8

A - las! A - lack and woe is me! Our te - nor is not here! Now we shall have a With - out a Te - nor how shall we complete a se - cond verse? If on - ly we had Ah! Allis vain, our song is done! Our part - songs must be less. We have no bass, nor

S A
T

8

mis - sing part no har mo - nies to hear.
had more time to ga - ther and re - - hearse.
a - ny men, And we are Te - nor - - less.